

A photograph of a long wooden pier extending from the foreground into the ocean. The pier is made of dark wood planks and features several white, square-shaped bollards. A thick, light-colored rope runs along the pier, attached to each bollard. Small, rectangular wooden structures, possibly birdhouses or lanterns, are mounted on top of some of the bollards. The ocean in the background is a calm blue, and the sky above is filled with wispy, white clouds.

Day 6 Perth - Rottnest Island

We will depart to Fremantle Shed to board the ferry to Rottnest Island. The life at Rottnest Island is completely different from the life in the city, here you will be able to enjoy the natural fresh air and admire the scenery of the Indian ocean. Indulge yourself into the nature and you will feel so relaxed that you forget about your worries. Also, you will be able to closely interact with some cute animals on the island like the Western Australian special, Quokka. The interaction between all these cute animals and humans will make you cherish and admire the beauty of the nature in Rottnest Island. There are no cars on the road and therefore the best transport across the island will be to ride a bicycle. (Bicycle will be available to rent on the island) There will be lots of activities available at the Thomson Bay like golf, tennis, shopping and tour guide services. Food will also be available as there will be cafes, restaurants or even takeaways. Touring across Rottnest Island will be like traveling across time, travelling past few colonial lodges like the Salt Store and the Lomas Cottage will bring you back to the 19th century. Tourists who love water activities will be delighted as activities such as fishing, swimming or snorkelling will be available on the island. We will board the ferry back to Fremantle in the evening and after we have our dinner in Perth, we will head back to the hotel to get some rest.
